Notes for Letitia Adeline Jackson:

Sydney Morning Herald (NSW : 1842 - 1954), Wednesday 6 March 1912, page

9 ALLEGED ABDUCTION.

YOUNG MAN COMMITTEE TOR TRIAL.

At the Glebe Police Court, before Mr. Barnett, S.M., Arthur Quigley, aged 27, was charged with having taken out of the possession of her father, Letitia Adeline Jackson, aged 16 years and 6 months. Mr. Maddox Cohen appeared for the accused who was arrested by the Caperted police.

The evidence of Letitia Adeline Jackson was that she had been acquainted with the accused for about two years. Lately she had been employed in a restaurant in George street. The accused asked her to go away with him, but at first she refused. He asked her to go to his sister-in-law's place at Warren Gunyah, but she refused. Finally she met him by appointment at the Central railway station and he purchased two tickets. They both left that night for Glandulla. near Mudgee, and the next afternoon they proceeded to Warren Gunyah. The accused and witness occupied the same tent from the Monday to the Friday, when she returned to Sydney. The accused paid her fare to Sydney, and told her to go to the Haymarket Post office for a registered letter on the following Tuesday. She did so but there was no letter. The accused had told her he could get into trouble over this affair. Had she not slept in the tent she would have had to sleep in the bush. There was another tent occupied by the brother-in-law of the accused and his wife, but they refused to allow her to occupy that tent.

Plain clothes Constable Robertson stated that when arrested, the accused admitted having taken the girl away and paid her fare by rail but he denied that they had been living together. The girl had been living with his brother's wife. He sent her home because he had heard that there was likely to be trouble over her absence from Sydney.

Alfred Jackson, father of the girl, stated that he heard that his daughter had been taken away to some place up country. He was unaware that the accused had been keeping company with his daughter, otherwise he would have put a stop to it.

Mr. Cohen submitted there was no case to go to a jury. His client had used no compulsion. The girl had gone with him of her own accord, and she had been living away from her father since December. It was not a serious case. '

Generation 3 (con't)

Mr. Barnett: "It Is a very serious case. .There, are not many more serious."

. The accused was committed for trial at the Central Criminal Court. Bail was allowed.
